

Project Owner: Electrical and Mechanical Services Department

Project Name (in English): eFax Server Replacement

Project Name (in Chinese):

Project Description: Active implements OceanFax Production Fax solution for Electrical & Mechanical Services Department to integrate with its existing SAP system flexibly, enabling the sending and receiving of fax documents automatically to streamline business process. It provides a user-friendly interface and helps decrease the total cost of ownership. The fax data mining function of OceanFax enables users to search or filter fax quickly in the interface.

Means of Service Acquisition: Arrangement, Standing Offer Agreement – Network Products and Enterprise Server Systems

Contractor Name:

Subcontractor Name: Active e-Solution Limited

Project Commenced on: 11/5/2015

Project Completed on: 1/8/2015

Electrical and Mechanical Services Department Choose to Use OceanFax Fax Server Integration with SAP, Favoring the HA Feature and Better Integration Method to Improve Overall Office Automation

Hong Kong - 11 May 2015 - Electrical and Mechanical Services Department (EMSD) recently has signed a contract with OceanFax for its excellent integration with SAP to send and receive fax as simple as send and receive email. Favoring the Unicode support and high security with AES 256 encryption, EMSD has integrated a better method to replace existing system with minimum change to greatly improve office efficiency.

Project Highlight

- OceanFax Fax with SAP integration

Why OceanFax

- Support Unicode
- Provide HA feature
- High Security with AES 256 encryption
- Provide a better integration method
- Total solution replace the existing product with minimum program change
- Lower TCO
- Local IT vender can provide better product and service support
- Support Hong Kong IT industry