

Job Category – IT Architecture
Competency Level – Practitioner

General Job Descriptions:

1. Design, develop, test and support the architecture components in support of the overall enterprise
2. architecture framework.
3. Coordinate with vendors to deliver best solutions regarding to technical architecture, physical architecture and data architecture.
4. Design, develop, test and support the application software architecture.
5. Design, develop, test and support the technology architecture and network architecture components.
6. Work with IT architect practitioners of different specialties to develop the overall systems architecture of a complex solution.
7. Work with software developer or infrastructure specialist for the realization of the architecture components.

Suggested Title:

IT Architect

Relevant titles in the industry :

- Network Architect
- Server Architect
- Storage Architect
- Data Architect
- System Analyst
- IT Solutions Analyst