Job Category – Software Engineering/Software Development
Competency Level – Specialist

General Job Descriptions:
1. Undertake to design and develop software in accordance to the adopted architecture design patterns and constraints.
2. Translate business and user requirements into system requirement specifications.
3. Carry out quality control and quality assurance in software development.
4. Understand the business implications of technical solutions, and assist in defining the technology solutions to support any future business requirements.
5. Assist and perform some management functions. Oversee the works performed by the subordinates.
6. Undertake software deployment, maintenance, migration, decommissioning assignments as necessary.
7. Act as the Key interface between business and technology teams in defining and influencing business requirements and assist in developing the appropriate system solutions.
8. Arrange User Training.

Suggested Title:
Software Engineer

Relevant titles in the industry :
• software engineer
• analyst programmer
• programmer
• Business Analyst
• Application support analyst
• Application developer
• Developer
• Software analyst/assistant software analyst
• Usability Designer/consultant/engineer